

This document is published by the Texas Center for Educational Technology, a part of the Academy for Research and Professional Development in the College of Education at the University of North Texas.

All activities undertaken by TCET support its mission:

Promote research, development, and evaluation collaboratives between industry, education, and communities in order that technologies and application models can be created and adapted for integration into the public schools.

TCET disseminates the results of research, evaluation, and development activities to all public school educators in Texas using a variety of accessible communication avenues, including professional journals, Internet electronic reports, CD-ROM, and publications.

This publication is a Texas Center for Educational Technology (TCET) report. Reference to vendors is made in the interest of disseminating information to TCET members and does not serve as a product endorsement.
